- (1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant in relation to particular premises if the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, on the premises a particular thing that may be relevant to the administration or execution of a taxation law.
- (2) If a magistrate is satisfied by the evidence on oath or by affirmation or by affidavit that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, on the premises a particular thing that may be relevant to the administration or execution of a taxation law, the magistrate may issue a search warrant authorising an authorised officer named in the warrant and any assistants the authorised officer considers necessary—

- (5) The rules to be observed with respect to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.

78 Announcement before entry

- (2) The authorised officer or a person assisting the authorised officer need not comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure—

79 Copy of warrant to be given to occupier

If the occupier or another person who apparently represents the occupier is present at premises when a search warrant is being executed, the authorised officer must—

- (a) identify himself or herself to that person by producing his or her identity card for inspection by that person; and
- (b) give to that person a copy of the execution copy of the warrant.

80 Use of equipment to examine or process things

- (1) An authorised officer or assistant of the authorised officer who enters premises under section 76 may operate equipment already at the premises to carry out the examination or processing of a thing found at the premises in order to determine whether it is a thing that may be seized under section 76, if the authorised officer or assistant believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) the equipment is suitable for the examination or processing; and
- (b) the examination or processing can be carried out without damage to the equipment or the thing.

- (2) If—

- (a) it is not practicable to examine or process the thing at the premises; or

(1) If—

- (a) a thing found at premises that an authorised officer has entered under section 76 is or includes a disk, tape or other device for storage of information; and the authorised officer or an assistant of the authorised officer may operate, or may require the occupier or an employee of the occupier to operate, the equipment to access the information.

(2) If the authorised officer or assistant finds that a disk, tape or other storage device at the premises contains information of the kind referred to in subsection (1)(c), he or she may—

(3) An authorised officer or assistant must not operate or seize equipment for the purpose mentioned in this section unless the authorised officer or assistant believes on reasonable grounds that the operation or seizure of the equipment can be carried out without damage to the equipment.

82 Compensation for damage to electronic equipment

(1) If equipment is damaged because of being operated or seized by an authorised officer or assistant of an authorised officer under section 80 or 81 and the damage is caused by insufficient care being exercised—

- (a) in selecting the person who is to operate or seize the equipment; or
- (b) by the person operating or seizing the equipment—

the Commissioner must pay compensation for the damage to the owner of the equipment.

(2) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises and the employees and agents of the occupier, if they were available at the time, had provided any warning or guidance as to the operation of the equipment that was appropriate in the circumstances.

83 Copies to be given

If an authorised officer seizes, other than under section 81(2)(a) or (b)—

- (a) a document (including a disk or tape) or other thing that can be readily copied; or

- (3) If the document or thing has not been returned before the end of the retention period, the Commissioner or authorised officer must take reasonable steps to return it unless—
  - (a) proceedings have commenced within the retention period and those proceedings (including any appeal) have not been completed; or
  - (b) a court makes an order under section 85 extending the retention period.
- (4) If, after taking reasonable steps, the Commissioner or authorised officer is unable to return the document or thing, he or she may dispose of or destroy it.

85 Magistrates' Court may extend period

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to the Magistrates' Court within the retention period in relation to a document or thing, or within a period extended by the Court under this section, for an extension of that period.
- (2) The Magistrates' Court may order such an extension if satisfied that retention of the document or thing is necessary—
  - (a) for the purposes of an investigation into whether an offence has been committed; or
  - (b) to enable evidence of an offence to be obtained for the purposes of a prosecution.
- (3) The Court may adjourn an application to enable notice of the application to be given to any person.

87 Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from answering a question, providing information or producing a document or thing, when required to do so under this Act, on the ground that to do so might tend to amended by

No. 86/1997
s. 28(1).

- (2) However, if the person objects to answering the question, providing the information or producing the document or thing on that ground, the answer, information, document or thing is not admissible against the person in any criminal proceedings other than—
